

This Week at

Volume 5, Issue 39

Friday, October 19, 2018

Mid October News at

- Able Ortega, a DSP in our Newton group home, presented a great power point on Octoberfest and German culture at a Newton group home hosted event last week at the Eickmann Center in Hampton. The cultural night involved several accompanying group home residents to learn about German culture, the history of Octoberfest, and the foods, dances and costumes of German culture. The interaction with participants was well done! Judith and Lisa are pictured having fun at Octoberfest Thanks all!

- Jen Bujno of Hackettstown dances with NERD lead singer Spaz at the SCARC Foundation sponsored NERDS concert last week at the Sussex County College Performing Arts Center. The New Jersey based NERDS provided the audience with great music which led several audience members to dance their way through the concert for 2 hours. During the final song, the band invited the audience to dance with them on stage. Rock and Roll everyone!

- Andrew Taylor of our Harvest Home Foods program in Hamburg artistically created a Halloween village with recyclables to demonstrate the use of recycled materials into an art form. Good going!

- SCARC Foundation board chairman Angelo Bolcato Esq (r) of Laddey, Clark & Ryan in Sparta and SCARC audit team member Doug Collins of Nisivoccia LLC in Mt Arlington joined Richard Lecher, SCARC CEO, at an Executive Roundtable Seminar and Luncheon sponsored by Lakeland Bank in Sparta. Attendees learned of the current state of the economy and its effects on the Sussex County business and non-profit community. In addition, SCARC board member Mary Ann St. John and SCARC Guardianship Services CEO Megan MacMullin attended a non-profit summit hosted by Laddey, Clark, & Ryan at Perona Farms to learn of the non-profit landscape and its effect on the SCARC family of services.

