

This Week at SCARC

Volume 5, Issue 47

Friday, December 21, 2018

Christmas Season News at SCARC

- Residents of our Sussex group home (l) enjoyed a Christmas brunch at the Lafayette House Restaurant to take in the ambience of the season. Residents of our Fredon group home (r) had a great time at their holiday party at the home last week with friends, former residents, and family members.

- In addition, our Beemerhill group home hosted Fredon and Franklin group homes for a party, and Christine (r) from our Vernon group home went to the Skyland's Light Show in Augusta to enjoy her favorite Tchaikovsky Nutcracker.

- And, John (l) from our Branchville group home participated in making and decorating ginger bread houses with everyone's family who came to the home to enjoy a family holiday party. A good time was had by all.

- SCARC's Senior program Choir (r) serenaded the administrative center staff with Christmas Carols. Led by Bill Neal, the Choir sang to residents of Barn Hill Care Center in Newton earlier in the day. Their annual concert to our staff is always enjoyed as we are reminded of our mission each holiday season.

- SCARC's Harvest Home programs enjoyed a holiday luncheon and party (l) at the Branchville Presbyterian Church. Music, friendship, and good food was the reason for an enjoyable time.

- We will be taking a break for the holidays from publishing our This Week at SCARC newsletter. The next issue will be published in the first week in January. Happy New Year!!!!