

This Week at ASCARC

Volume 6, Issue 12

Friday, March 29, 2019

End of March News at ASCARC

- Jason Vaughn, right in the photo, member of the US Marine Corps League Detachment 747 of Sussex County, marches in the 2019 St. Patrick's Day parade in Newton. Jason is one of SCARC's snow plowers, sealcoat paver, and vendor who supports SCARC in many ways. Looking good Jason and fellow Marines!

- The SCARC Foundation Honors Dinner held last week at Perona Farms was a great success. Our Honorees for evening are pictured left with Heather Childers of Fox & Friends First, and include Andy Jorgensen, Lifetime Achievement Award, Bob McCracken, of Smith McCracken and Wood Funeral Homes and Tom Ryan, of Laddey, Clark, & Ryan attorneys, both receiving Leadership Awards. The entertainment for the evening was The Amazing Kreskin. The proceeds from the evening supports SCARC and SCARC Guardianship Services programs. Thank you all for supporting the SCARC Family of Services, and for helping us meet our goal for the evening.

- Leif Backlund, Ned Meeder, and Rachael Gessel traveled to the Special Olympics Bowling Finals in North Brunswick this past Sunday. All three of them had a great time! Leif placed 4th, Ned placed 5th, and Rachael also placed 5th! SCARC bowlers have always participated in various levels of competition in Special Olympics, and have always been fine representatives of SCARC.

- Kaitlyn Quinn is presented with SCARC's Key To Success Award for her heroic intervention to save the life of one of our group home residents who was choking on food. Kaitlyn, manager of our Hampton group home, but who was taking a shift in another home, used her excellent SCARC training in life preserving techniques to address the emergency. Presenting the honor at our March Department Heads meeting is Kate Stefanko, SCARC director of community services. Thank you Kaitlyn for your brave and effective intervention!

- Don't forget our 2019 Gordon Shelton Walkathon at the County Fairgrounds on Sunday May 19th.