

This Week at ASCARC

Volume 6, Issue 22

Friday, June 7, 2019

First of June News at ASCARC

- Residents of our Newton and Fredon group homes ventured to Lodestar Park in Fredon, and enjoyed a BBQ at our Newton group home afterwards! A great time and bon appetite was enjoyed by all.

- SCARC's Special Olympic athletes left today for the state games and competitions at The College of New Jersey in Ewing where the state games will occur.

Twenty-five athletes and 4 coaches with 5 SCARC staff made the annual trip to the games. Coaches Karen, Tom, Taylor, and Luann joined Ryan Lausch, SCARC's coordinator of recreation, to compete with hundreds if not thousands of athletes from all over New Jersey. We await the results and announce the medals received. Go SCARC Go!

- Judith John from our Fredon group home, and who participates in our senior program, volunteers at Valley View Rehabilitation Center in Newton every Monday working on crafts with the residents. Today, the residents gave her flowers for being THE BEST Volunteer!!!! Judith was so excited to receive the flowers!!! Congratulations Judith!

- Our SCARC Foundation Sock Hop will be held on Friday evening June 21 at Skylands Ice World, 2765 Route 23, Stockholm starting at 6pm to 9pm. This event is for residents of SCARC's residential programs. RSVP to Ryan Lausch at rlausch@scarc.org. Thank you Rita Mitchell and all at Skylands Ice World for hosting the event this year.

- "Take me out to the ballgame!" Please remember the SCARC Foundation night at the Skylands Stadium ballpark on June 28 at 7:05 pm when the Sussex County Miners play the Rockland Boulders. In order to support the SCARC Foundation, you have to purchase tickets from our Foundation office at SCARC. Call Chris Hemmer at the office to pick up your tickets; call 973-383-7442 ext 260.