

This Week at SCARC

Volume 8, Issue 10

Friday, March 19, 2021

Almost Spring March News at SCARC

- Dan from our Hardyston group home has made a terrarium during a virtual class with our online day habilitation program. Also, Gail and her Mom (right) enjoyed the terrarium making lesson from their home. Science is an important part of our lessons at SCARC, and the beautiful creations will grow well into Spring. Good work guys!

- Our fine folks from our Lenape group home, Ed, xx, Judy, and Linda, enjoy the bright and sunny weather on their back porch. Spring is in the air, and with vaccinations having taken place, everyone can relax, rest, and focus on the bright side of things.

- And speaking of good weather and getting outside, the men from our Hillside group home in Frankford traveled to the Frankford Township Park for a visit in the sun. Enjoying great weather is what spring is all about. We are glad for the opportunity to get out of the house to relish the melting snow and admire the birds and sun.

- Our Special Olympics corn hole competitions are up and running with five group homes competing with each other over a four-week period. NJ Special Olympics donated the corn hole boards for our homes, and several group home residents are interested in beating each other. At our Hampton group home (l), Clint and Richard tackle the game, and at our Stanhope group home, Derek and Marty (r) compete on their front porch.

- See our 2020 Annual Report on our SCARC.org website. We review many of the happenings of last year and bring important stories to our viewers' awareness. Thanks to Andrea Lovas, our copywriter, for excellent story development, and thank you to David Taylor Design for technical assistance in creating our web design for the Annual Report.
- Another virtual Broadway concert is coming to SCARC on April 22 at 7pm. Ron Bohmer and Sandra Joseph (from Phantom of the Opera fame) will be entertaining us once again with current Broadway songs we all love. Tickets are $25 per device, and can be purchased at <http://bit.ly/2021Concert>.

