

This Week at

Volume 9, Issue 24

Friday, July 22, 2022

Middle of July News at

- The Eichmann Center participants have been watching butterflies grow from an egg, to a caterpillar, to a chrysalis and then an adult butterfly. They held a butterfly release event at which the full adult butterflies were released into the wild to watch them fly away. They ordered the butterfly kit from Shady Oak Butterfly Farm in Brooker, Florida, and started to watch the butterflies grow, change, and metamorphose. What an excellent science lesson for all!

- The Hampton Center guys had their annual Summer BBQ and celebrated the upcoming birth of Clark Supervisor Jamie's baby girl. Everyone played games, socialized and had a BBQ lunch. Luann (left in photo) shows the baby shower cake to Jamie (right in photo). The Hampton Center is the location of our Eickmann Center, our Clark Center, and our Harvest Home Foods.

- A group of SCARC traveled to the opening of our new WAWA store in Augusta. In the photo right, Victor is greeted by Mayor Sam Castimore of Frankford Township during the opening. In the photo at far right, WAWA executives present a $1,000 check to the SCARC Foundation. WAWA has been and continues to be a significant supporter of the SCARC Foundation and SCARC and SCARC Guardianship Services in Sussex County. We appreciate their support!

individuals (left)

- Former SCARC Special Olympics athlete Steven Krispin (right) competed in this summer's Special Olympics Summer Games at The College of New Jersey in his favorite Power Lifting competition. Steven is a perennial medal winner, and this year he didn't disappoint. Congratulations Steven!

- Dee (left) from our Hampton Harvest Home Foods program admires the replaced sunflower plants at the entrance to the center. Somehow they disappeared, then re-appeared. Who knows what happened?

- Don't forget the SCARC Awards event at the Skylands Ball Park on Friday August 26th from 4 – 7pm. We will have a ballpark dinner, and lots of awards to hand out to award honorees. Music will be provided by DJ Ray at RJ Mixers. Contact Kate Imperato at kimparato@scarc.org for reservations and more information.