

THIS WEEK AT ASCARC

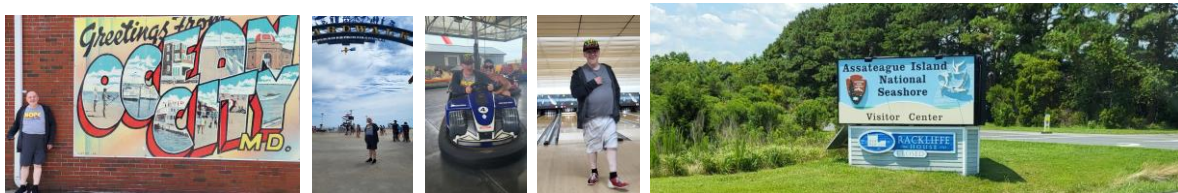

VOLUME 10, ISSUE 25

FRIDAY, JULY 28, 2023

- The Eickmann Center got caught up in Barbie Fever this week and enjoyed the opportunity to go see the Barbie Movie!! Also, Leif and Fawn had great catches this week while fishing! Not to be overshadowed, Nina scored a hole in one at mini-golf this week and could not contain her excitement!!

- Joe had an AMAZING TRIP to Ocean City, Maryland and got to experience all the sight, rides and fun!

- Andy and John wanted to show off the fruits (or vegetables) of their labor from their garden! I see some zucchini bread in our future!

- Below is a beautiful picture of Lauren Lawler visiting the new “Lawler Trail” in Lafayette! Lauren’s family Lived in Lafayette for many years on a farm on Warbasse Junction. They sold the land to Lafayette Township which turned their property into a trail that leads to the state trails. The township honored the family with a trail dedication naming it “The Lawler Trail”. The picture shows Lauren visiting the trail for the first time and viewing the kiosk which has a biography of her family.
