

THIS WEEK AT

VOLUME 10, ISSUE 42

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2024

- Happy Friday everyone! I hope everyone is able to step outside and enjoy some of the sunshine today. February is the time where I am not silly enough to think it is Spring, but I like to have little signs of it around me like a hyacinth that is not quite ready to bloom but just active enough to know it is arriving soon! At SCARC, signs of Spring include Special Olympics events, bowling, swimming, skiing and the distribution of sign-ups for Spring Special Olympics. Also, tonight is the Night to Shine event hosted by the Tim Tebow Foundation. We have many people ready to get their dresses and tuxes on to attend! This is a phenomenal event and I will share photos of the highlights in the next newsletter.
 - In this issue I have included a potpourri of pictures from several activities and things for us to be proud of. Each and every day our staff contribute to the success and happiness of everyone at SCARC. WE ARE GRATEFUL EACH DAY FOR ALL THEY DO. Like many human services organizations and non-profits, we need more staff. I am including a list below of positions we are looking to fill. Maybe you know someone who lives in Sussex County or nearby that is looking for meaningful work - - feel free to pass our newsletter around. Anyone can visit our website to apply or just stop in any day - - we are happy to accept resumes anytime. Follow this link to apply through our website. Employment - SCARC
